RUSK.

Rusk, Texas, April 24.—A recent visit to Church Hill Community, four miles from Jacksonville, convinces one that the actions of those people are worthy of imitation. They have organized an independent school district, voted a special tax, and bonds, and are now building a first class school house. This building will be equipped and ready for the coming scholastic year.

Mr. Chapman, a wealthy citizen

Mr. Chapman, a wealthy citizen of Cherokee County, is a great factor in the movement. Messrs. C. H. Francis and Jones are worthy leaders. Through their influence, the services of Rev. S. Garner, the educator and builder, have been secured. Through his wise leadership, Church was held Sunday night by lamp light.

Mrs. Liddle Bell was called to El Paso last week to attend the function and builder, have been secured. Through his wise leadership, Church was held Sunday night by lamp light.
